

COVID travel guide for New Zealand

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

FOR CUSTOMERS TRAVELLING FROM THE UK
To enter New Zealand you will need to show:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> That you are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 	To be considered fully vaccinated by the New Zealand government, you must have completed a full course of vaccines no less than 14 days before entering. The NHS COVID Pass for Travel is accepted to demonstrate your COVID-19 vaccination status. For more information on how to obtain this, please go here. It is possible to enter New Zealand if you are not fully vaccinated, but you must meet strict exemptions rules, most of which do not apply to Exodus clients. If you believe you are exempt, please contact our Customer Operations team for more information.
Before arrival you will need to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Complete the traveller declaration and be issued a traveller pass AND <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Obtain a New Zealand electronic travel authority 	This can be completed here. You will need to show your traveller pass when you check-in at the airport and to customs when you arrive in New Zealand. We would recommend carry a paper and electronic copy of your pass. This can be completed here and costs roughly £25. It takes up to 72 hours to process so we would recommend allowing plenty of time to complete it.
Upon arrival you will be asked to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Complete a lateral flow test 	You will also be provided with a pack of tests with instructions for use. The first test must be taken the day you arrive and the second and final test on either day 5 or 6. You will receive an email from the Ministry of Health with instructions on how to report your result.
