NOTES FOR VISA

There are two ways to apply for your Indian visa – either online through their e-tourist visa service, or through the Indian High Commission's Visa Facilitation Service (VFS).

You can also choose to apply through our recommended visa service agency Travcour please note for standard visas, you will still need to attend an in-person appointment for your visa application even if you use an agency service.

*Clients with a Pakistani passport or of Pakistani descent will need extra time and additional documents for visa processing.

1. E-TOURIST VISA

- 30-day eVisa

This is a double entry visa and is valid for entry within 30 days from the date the E-visa is granted. You can only apply for this type of visa only within 30 days of travel.

- 1-year eVisa

This is a multiple entry visa and is only valid for 1 year from the date the visa is issued. You can apply for this type of visa within 180 days of travel

2. VISA FACILITATION SERVICE (VFS Global)

All applicants applying for a visa through VFS must **complete the online form and have it handed in to a branch of the Indian High Commission's Visa Facilitation Service (VFS) to complete the process. This can either be done in person, via a nominated person on behalf of the applicant or using the service of a visa service agency.

\*Filling or submitting the online form on the Government website does not complete the process - you are required to submit the physical application form and supporting documents to the VFS Application Centre in person.*

Completing the online application form includes the requirement to enter two referee details (one at home and one in India) plus details of your start hotel; we provide details below on a trip-by-trip basis. British passport holders whose parents were not born in the UK should contact their nearest Indian Embassy to check the visa application conditions.

The photos required for the visa must measure 2" x 2" (50mmX 50mm) and are available from Snappy Snaps and some Post Office/superstore photo booths.

SMALL PRINT

All nationalities require a full passport that must be valid for 6 months beyond the intended length of stay and in many cases need to be within 10 years from date of issue. It is your responsibility to have the correct personal documents and to obtain your own visa, if one is necessary, in accordance with the regulations of the country you are to visit.

If a visa is required prior to travel, it is your responsibility to obtain one. However, we strongly advise you not to do this until your trip has been confirmed as a guaranteed departure. The information above is meant to aid you in getting your visa. Information can change, so if you are at all concerned, please check with the embassy.
