

CAMBRIDGE TO OXFORD: WWII & COLLEGES

PRIVATE GROUP ADVENTURE

Explore the highlights of two illustrious English cities, delving deep into their Second World War history

Discover the highlights of Cambridge and Oxford, two of the most prestigious cities in England. Known globally for their world-leading universities, they are also surrounded by Second World War history, which we explore in depth on this culture-rich adventure. Recount the heroics of the Bloody Hundredth US airman, explore the once-secret Bletchley Park (home of the Codebreakers), and visit Sir Winston Churchill's magnificent Blenheim Palace. There's also time to tour university colleges and dig further into the history and heritage of these illustrious cities.

This tour is specifically designed as a private departure only and can be operated on a date of your choice.

Itinerary

DAY 1

Arrive in Cambridge

Arrive in Cambridge and meet your private group and guide at the hotel at 4pm. If you're early, stroll to the Botanic Garden or take a punt along the River Cam. This evening, gather for a welcome dinner — no need for intros, just a toast to the adventures ahead.

Accommodation: Hilton Cambridge City Centre (or similar)

Meals included: Dinner

DAY 2

Walking Tour & IWM Duxford

Start with a guided walking tour of Cambridge, visiting iconic university colleges and soaking up centuries of academic history. After lunch, travel to the Imperial War Museum Duxford to explore WWII aircraft, exhibitions and preserved hangars that tell the story of the Battle of Britain. Return to Cambridge by late afternoon.

Accommodation: Hilton Cambridge City Centre (or similar)

Meals included: Breakfast

DAY 3

The Bloody Hundredth

Travel to Thorpe Abbots for a guided visit to the 100th Bomb Group Memorial Museum. Explore the original control tower, the recreated teleprinter room, and learn how the 'Bloody Hundredth' became a legend of the US Eighth Air Force. Head back to Cambridge for a free afternoon to spend as you like.

Accommodation: Hilton Cambridge City Centre (or similar)

Meals included: Breakfast

DAY 4

Bletchley Park & Waddesdon Manor

Tour Bletchley Park and uncover the secrets of Britain's fascinating wartime codebreakers. Walk through Enigma exhibits, film rooms and recreated workspaces. After lunch, visit Waddesdon Manor for a guided tour of its French-style interiors and landscaped gardens. In the evening, continue to Oxford and settle in for the night.

Accommodation: voco Oxford Spires (or similar)

Meals included: Breakfast

CAMBRIDGE TO OXFORD: WWII & COLLEGES

DAY 5

Explore Oxford

Take a guided walking tour through Oxford's historic streets and world-famous colleges, including filming sites from 'Masters of the Air'. The afternoon is free—walk the Thames, tour Christ Church or enjoy a coffee where England's café culture began. Your guide is on hand to tailor suggestions for the group.

Accommodation: voco Oxford Spires (or similar)

Meals included: Breakfast

DAY 6

Blenheim Palace & Charlbury Walk

Tour Blenheim Palace—Churchill's birthplace—and explore its baroque interiors, Churchill exhibition, and sweeping Capability Brown gardens. Optional lunch in The Orangery offers a stately pause. In the afternoon, you'll walk past golden-stone houses in Charlbury. The day ends with a farewell dinner and toast to good company in Oxford.

Accommodation: voco Oxford Spires (or similar)

Meals included: Breakfast and dinner

DAY 7

Depart Oxford

After breakfast, it's time to part ways. Trains run direct from Oxford to London Paddington—or stay on to explore more golden-stone villages or riverside pubs. From Bletchley Park to Blenheim, Cambridge quads to Cotswold lanes, it's been a journey through British history, shared with your favourite people, at your pace.

Meals included: Breakfast
